It may be tempting to purchase your own equipment before completing the course; you are strongly advised not to do this. During the course, you will be given advice on the correct equipment for you and the best sources to purchase it. If you successfully complete the course and elect to join an Archery GB club you will be able to borrow equipment until you have developed your technique and are then in a good position to buy the correct equipment. Note: You will not be able to use your own equipment on the course.
